MEMORY VERSE: Luke 6:27-28

But to you who are willing to listen,

Luke 6:27-28 = <sup>27</sup> "But to you who are willing to listen, I say, love your enemies! Do good to those who hate you. <sup>28</sup> Bless those who curse you. Pray for those who hurt you

III John 5-8 = <sup>5</sup> Dear friend, you are being faithful to God when you care for the traveling teachers who pass through, even though they are strangers to you. <sup>6</sup> They have told the church here of your loving friendship. Please continue providing for such teachers in a manner that pleases God. <sup>7</sup> For they are traveling for the Lord, and they accept nothing from people who are not believers. <sup>8</sup> So we ourselves should support them so that we can be their partners as they teach the truth.

III John 9-10 = <sup>9</sup> I wrote to the church about this, but Diotrephes, who loves to be the leader, refuses to have anything to do with us. <sup>10</sup> When I come, I will report some of the things he is doing and the evil accusations he is making against us. Not only does he refuse to welcome the traveling teachers, he also tells others not to help them. And when they do help, he puts them out of the church.

John 11 = <sup>11</sup> Dear friend, don't let this bad example influence you. Follow only what is good. Remember that those who do good prove that they are God's children, and those who do evil prove that they do not know God.
